CARLISLE'S BOND CALL.

Knights of Labor Will Oppose It With an Injunction Suit.

COMMENT ON THE THREAT.

House Progress With Amendments to the Tariff Bill—Another Week of the Debate—Colonel Matson Does Not Want to Be Pension Agent—General News From the Capital.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—A Baltimore dispatch announcing a threatened injunction by the Knights of Labor against Secretary Carlisle, to restrain him from issuing $50,000,000 in bonds, has been shown to the secretary.

Mr. Carlisle merely read the dispatch, but declined to say anything whatever on the subject for publication. Other officials of the department were not surprised. The feeling of the Knights of Labor and of labor unions generally on the bond question was known to be unfavorable, as had been shown by the passage of resolutions against it. The officials were a unit on the opinion that the secretary had nothing more than a temporary delay to fear from injunction proceedings, and even this they did not think in the least degree probable. The secretary consulted the attorney general and the president before issuing the bond call.

How to Secure the Writ.

Applications for writs of injunction or mandamus against department officials are usually made to one of the justices of the supreme court of the District of Columbia. An appeal from a decision of the supreme court would lie to the district court of appeals, but in the ordinary course of events could not be heard by the higher court for several months, unless an order advancing it on the calendar was made. From the court of appeals the case might be taken to the United States supreme court if the discontentment that unquestionably would be met by the employers in the lower courts did not cause them to cease their efforts. It is believed no delay would be occasioned by these legal proceedings, as even a temporary injunction doubtless would be denied. The Populists of the house know nothing about the injunction against the bond issue.
Jerry Simpson of Kansas says he will have no hand in it, but would be glad if it were true.

Mr. Bland's Objections.

Representative Calhoun of Texas, chairman of the judiciary committee, says there is no doubt of the power of Secretary Carlisle to issue these bonds.
Lawyers of the house generally think the proceedings would have no standing in court. Strong sentiment is expressed among house silver leaders against the "gold-lance." Mr. Bland says it is the first time he has ever seen an official statement declining to accept silver or any of the various forms of legal tender and requiring payment in gold only.
Some of the anti-silver men take issue with Mr. Bland on this point. They say that the bonds are issued under the resumption act of 1875, which provides the bonds should be sold for "coin," but they point out that before this (1875) silver was demonetized, so that it could not be included in the meaning of the word "coin."

Is There a Gold Reserve?

Some of the treasury department officials have a theory, which has been advanced several times heretofore, and which is said to be shared by some of those who have a hand in directing the affairs of the department, that at this time there actually exists no funds that can be properly termed the "gold reserve." The redemption of treasury notes alone, it is said, is sufficient to wipe out the gold reserve, and re-demptions of United States and treasury notes together, up to a recent period, have aggregated $149,000,000. This amount has not been retired, but reissued. If this theory is carried to its legitimate conclusion, it is held that the government has not been using the gold reserve for the payment of current expenditures, but has been merely drawing on its stock of assets as represented by the gold. Figures bearing out these deductions have been prepared for the secretary and he will shortly issue a statement on the subject, it is said.

SOVEREIGN INTERVIEWED.

Head of the Knights of Labor Says the Injunction Will Be Sought.

DIX MOINES, Jan. 20.—General Master Workman Sovereign, though confessing that injunction proceedings against Secretary Carlisle "may be a good deal like a mouse tackling a lion," says it is going to be done. The injunction is to be drawn here by Judge Cole, sworn to by Mr. Sovereign and sent to Washington to be filed in the United States circuit court early next week. Senator Allen of Nebraska has been asked by Mr. Sovereign to make the oral argument, but in case he refuses Judge Cole will probably go to Washington.

It is claimed that the secretary has no authority to make the bond issue; that there is no provision of law for any special reserve and that the secretary's offer of a greater amount of bonds than the so-called legal reserve indicates shows that the offer of sale is not for the purpose specified in the act of 1875. It is claimed there is no deficit in the reserve fund, for the silver in the treasury is more than double the so-called deficit in the so-called legal reserve. Mr. Sovereign says there is nothing in the law providing for a reserve of $100,000,000.

Holman's Patronage.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Congressman Holman expects the appointment of postmasters at Rushville and Shelbyville soon. There has been considerable agitation over the offices at Brookville, Lawrenceburg and Vevay, but there will be no change at either until the expiration of the commissions of the present incumbents. Primary elections have settled most of the postoffice contests in Holman's district so far, and the same policy will probably prevail in others.

JOHNSON'S AMENDMENT.

His Proposition to Make Steel Rails Free Lost in Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The house is making slow progress with amendments to the tariff bill. Only one week more remains, and less than 20 amendments to about 1,000 paragraphs have been disposed of. The argument between Mr.
Johnson and Mr. Dalzell of the proposition to put steel rails on the free list continued yesterday and was characterized by a good many personalities.

In concluding the argument, in which several members took part, Chairman Wilson urged upon his Democratic colleagues the necessity of preserving the whole scheme of the bill. When the vote came the amendment was defeated, but only 40 Democrats voted with their colleagues of the committee, while 79 voted with Johnson and the radicals.
This subject disposed of, Mr. Henderson (Rep., Ia.) offered the agricultural schedule of the McKinley bill as a substitute for that of the Wilson, and most of the afternoon was spent in discussing this phase of the tariff.

Several speeches were made at the night session. Mr. Morgan (Dem., Mo.) indorsed the bill generally, but condemned the placing of lead ore on the free list. He charged it as a fact within his knowledge that the lead schedule had been dictated by the lead trust and appealed to the house to remove from the bill any suspicion of jobbery.

Dined by the Carlises.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Secretary and Mrs. Carlisle gave an unofficial dinner last evening at their residence on K street. Among those present were Sec-

MRS. CARLISLE.
retary and Mrs. Gresham, Senator White, Senator and Mrs. Gibson, Mr.
Calvin Carlisle and Mrs. Carlisle, Private Secretary Thurber and Mrs. Thurber, Dr. Hammond and Mrs. Hammond, Marshal and Mrs. Wilson, Colonel and Mrs. French, Minister Romero and Mrs.
Romero.

Witnesses on Hawaii.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Lieutenant Commander Swinburne and Professor B.
Olson gave testimony yesterday before the senate Hawaiian investigating committee, the latter supporting the provision-als. Lieutenant Coffman, also of the Boston, was an important witness for the administration, giving confirmation to Commissioner Blount's report of the landing of the marines.

In Favor of Settle.

committee on elections, by a practically unanimous vote, has decided in favor of Thomas Settle (Rep.), whose seat was contested by Williams (Dem.), from the Fifth North Carolina district. Mr.
Paynter (Dem., Ky.) will make the report in favor of Settle.

Important Report Monday.

cratic members of the ways and means committee have decided to report the tax provision, to the full committee and to the house Monday.

been received from ex-President Harrison consenting to write an introductory chapter to a life of Jeremiah Rusk, which the latter's private secretary, Mr. Cas-son, is writing.

In Favor of Union.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Delegations from Oklahoma and New Mexico were before the senate committee on territories yesterday. They advocated making one state of the two territories.

Matson has informed Congressman Cooper that he must not be considered a not want the position.

First Bridge Disaster Suit.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 20.—The Louisville Trust company, as administrator of George H. Hinkle, has sued the Phoenix Bridge company for $25,000. The deceased was a victim of the December disaster.

LOCKED IN A MADHOUSE.

Pennsylvania Politician, Crazy by His Alleged Crookedness.

HIS BROTHER ALSO INSANE.

United States Commissioner Kennedy Accused of Criminal Practices at Lancaster—His Brother Goes Mad in an Effort to Untangle the Accounts and Is Also Under Restraint—Sad Case.

LANCASTER, Pa., Jan. 20.—It is stated here with great positiveness that United States Commissioner C. G. Kennedy, who was also a prominent Republican politician and a member of the law firm of Smith & Kennedy, is an inmate of Kirkbride's asylum, and it is alleged that his insanity was the result of certain crooked business transactions. It is charged that he has been guilty of forgery and of converting to his own use money in his hands in a professional capacity. The amount involved is about $13,000, which his personal liabilities increase to $50,000. He is said to have entered satisfactions of judgments without the knowledge of his clients and pocketed the money, and to have confessed a judgment from a mythical person and disposed of it for cash. He, it is also alleged, forged a note now held by one of the Lancaster banks. Efforts have been made to settle the matter, but there is little prospect of it being accomplished.
Kennedy has been addicted to the cocaine habit for some years and is now a physical and mental wreck.

A sad part of the affair is that it has led to the insanity of his brother, Alonzo P. Kennedy of Pittsburgh. When the latter heard of his brother's troubles he came here to assist in settling them.
While negotiations were in progress he became insane and taking a train left here. He was next heard of in Springfield, Mass., where he wanted to buy the Massasoit hotel, offering a check in payment. He became violent when taken in charge by the police and a telegram was sent to his brother, Horace Kennedy of this city, who has left for Springfield. Alonzo formerly suffered from a mild form of insanity, but was considered completely cured.

WEST AFRICAN BRUTES.

Details of the Recent Battle in Which Sofas Were Exterminated.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—Lieutenant Colonel Ellis furnishes to the foreign office details of the recent engagement between frontier police and the Sofas, he being in command on the west coast of Africa.
Under Inspector Taylor the Sofas, who had been ravaging and decimating a friendly country, were pursued to the town of Keryemema, which place they found to be a perfect charnel house.
Scores of slaughtered natives, including women and children, were strewn about the neighborhood or piled inside the town.

Sick and wounded people were to be seen on all sides and the stench from the putrifying bodies was horrible in the extreme. The Sofas were followed and surprised in camp, 200 being killed and 77 wounded, their guns and ammunition captured and 400 women and children slaves liberated. Some of the women released were in a terrible state of weakness from lack of food and brutal beatings. The police lost two men.

WILL THEY FIGHT?

Fugitive Mitchell's Manager Finds Cause
For Complaint.

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 20.—Charles Mitchell and his manager, Masterson, have stirred up a grave doubt concerning the big fight and the possibility of its occurring. This is on the financial side of the question, Masterson laying before the club objection to the conditions under which the certified check for the $20,000 purse is held by John Kelly. The indorsement on the check provides that the money is to be paid Kelly on the day after the fight. Masterson sees a trick in this by which the club can get the gate receipts and then allow the arrest of the principals at the opening of the fight. He does not accuse the managers of dishonesty, but told them he would not trust them. He required that the purse be made payable to Kelly when the men have been told the scratch, and last night claimed to have carried the point. Otherwise the situation is unchanged.

WITHOUT A PARALLEL.

Labor Union Loans $50,000 to a Glass Manufacturer.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 20.—Local assembly 300 of the Windowglass Workers' association approved a proposed loan of $50,000 to James A. Chambers. This is the first case probably in the world where a labor union has been called upon to loan money to an employer. Mr.
Chambers' application has been in since early in November, and on the securing of the money demanded the continuation of his plant at Kensington.

Alleged Poisoners Arrested.

NEVADA, Mo., Jan. 20.—Sterling Brasner and wife have been arrested for poi-of five members died. The motive was to secure property.

cause was business depression.

Most Respect the Court.

BERLIN, Jan. 20.—Herr Ellendt, editor of The Sozialist, was sentenced yesterday for six months and deprived of civil rights for writing a seditious article.
One day was added for contempt in refusing to take off his hat in court.

ant is an ex-county officer.

MONEY CONFERENCE.

New Plan to Be Submitted Originates in Berlin.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—The correspondent of The Standard at Berlin says: Those persons interested in promoting a new monetary conference have prepared a plan for submission to the governments most closely concerned with the silver question. The plan will propose that the United States, France, England and Germany form a monetary union upon the following basis:

The United States to lay and use for currency purposes $10,000,000 of silver yearly, and France, representing the Latin union, to purchase 20,000,000 francs worth, England and Germany are to withdraw all their gold coinage and paper money under the value of a pound sterling and are to buy £750,000 worth of silver yearly in the meantime, and to issue notes under £1 in value against the fully equivalent deposit of silver coinage. India is to resume the unlimited coinage of silver.

The price of silver is to be fixed by the countries mentioned, as several of the persons interested say, 4d per ounce above the Indian rupee price and is to be alterable only at the beginning of each year. If the average London price of silver fall at any time 10 per cent below the coin price the members of the union are to have the option to withdraw and dissolve the union. This plan will be accompanied by a long series of remarks and comments, which will include a document attempting to prove that the acceptance of the proposed regulations by England and Germany is perfectly compatible with their maintaining the gold standard, and an attempt to explain the high of the convention price of silver by the necessity of offering the owners of silver mines a profit sufficient to induce them to form a trust to limit the output.

HAWAII AGAIN.

Steamer Monowal Brings Latest Advice
From Honolulu.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20.—The steamer Monowal brings news from Hawaii a week later than previous advices in a copyrighted letter to the Associated Press under date of Jan. 12. According to these advices affairs are quiet and politics is a drug. Minister Willis and Consul General Mills are displeased by personal snubs. The government has made Jan. 27 a holiday and will celebrate with a big demonstration and fireworks. Rumors of a royalist uprising have been prevalent, but it is an old saying which creates no alarm.

Just before the departure of the Monowal a rumor was current that Minister Willis had endeavored to persuade President Dole to allow the withdrawal of the late restoration correspondence, together with Dole's reply, and it is said even threatened to take the American men-of-war out of the harbor. Dole flatly refused.

To Fight For Lilioukalani.

HAVERHILL, Mass., Jan. 20.—For several weeks Smith Hill has been in town securing men ostensibly to go to New York and then sail for Brazil to fight in the Brazilian army. It is rumored, however, that the real destination is Honolulu, where they are to fight for Queen Lilioukalani.

PERISHED IN AN AVALANCHE.

Ten Lives Reported as Lost in the Rocky Mountains.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 20.—Word has been received here that L. Dole of this city and a party of nine men perished in an avalanche on the Rocky mountains.
Nearly all the members of the party were from this city.

The party left Three Forks, B. C., a fortnight ago for Bear Creek, near Fort Steele, where they intended to open a mine. Shortly after they left one of those heavy snow storms peculiar to mountain regions came on, and was followed next day by a thaw and rain, causing snow-slides in all directions. It should only take the party three days to get to their destination and they only had provisions for that length of time.
As they have not arrived there is but little doubt that the whole party has perished.

Letter From Breckinridge.

LEXINGTON, Jan. 20.—Congressman Breckinridge has issued a circular letter from Washington in which he complains that his opponents are not making a legitimate canvass and are attempting to stab him in the back while he is busy in congress. He assures his constituents that he is going to make the race, but it is not to be defensive.

THEIR WORK ON THE SAFE.

New Oil Field of Great Promise Struck In Cass County—Fit of Coughing Brings About Apoplexy and Death—Racing Association Revived—Other Interesting News of the State.

CROWN POINT, Ind., Jan. 20.—One of the boldest robberies perpetrated in this section for many days occurred at the operator's window at the Pan Handle depot at an early morning hour. Two men poked formidable-looking revolvers through the window and ordered him to throw up his hands. Harley Pilling, the night operator, was alone in the office, and a good pistol lay within two feet of his hand, but the robbers had him cornered and he was compelled to submit. They then entered and tied and blindfolded him and began pillaging the office. The money drawer was broken open and something like $20 or $25 was secured. Then the burglars drilled three holes in the safe, working two hours and a half in an attempt to open it, but the safe being burglar-proof, resisted their efforts in that direction.

Two or three trains passed the depot while the robbers were at work, and each time the burglars pulled down the signal board and allowed the trains to pass.

After the thieves had gone the enginewiper of the Crown Point dummy happened to go to the office and, discovering the operator tied and blindfolded, he released him and gave the alarm. Officers are scouring the country for the miscreants.

Spit In a Church.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Jan. 20.—A quarrel has sprung up in the Rock Creek M. E. church, south of here, between two contending factions. The regular pastor, the Rev. Z. T. Hildebrand, while in a heated debate over a business transaction, lost his temper and is said to have used unministerial language. Because of this his license is said to have been suspended, but he continued preaching until the key was turned on him. Now the minister and his following is said to be trying to lease the schoolhouse near by in which to hold services. The large congregation is about equally divided and much feeling has been worked up.

Grassman Gets No Damages.

MUNCIE, Ind., Jan. 20.—During a recent smallpox epidemic James Grassman was placed in the hospital as a supposed patient, but he did not have the disease, nor did he contract it. He, however, did contract a skin disease which caused him amovance, and he brought suit against the city of Muncie for $10,000 damages.
Judge Monks of Winchester yesterday decided that Grassman was not entitled to damages.

Racing Interest Revived.

CONNEERSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 20.—New directors for the Driving Park association have been elected and other necessary arrangements made for circuit racing this coming season. The matter had been in bad shape for some time, and it looked as if the handsome track was doomed, but after considerable skirmishing new life was infused.

Cheered the Verdict.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., Jan. 20.—Gillam Graves, who has been on trial for the murder of Jack Milligan, was acquitted yesterday afternoon, the jury finding the evidence in self-defense. They were out only 20 minutes and took three ballots. The courtroom was crowded and the verdict was received with cheering.

Epilepsy on a Train.

MUNCIE, Ind., Jan. 20.—John Moore, enroute from Buffalo to Indianapolis on the Big Four yesterday, was taken with an epileptic fit east of Muncie. He ran his head through the closed window, nearly bled to death before he could be conveyed to the city hospital here.

Avery Williams Dead.

WABASH, Ind., Jan. 20.—Avery Williams, county superintendent of schools, is dead. He was 30 years old, had been known to the entire community. His family is one of the best in the community. At Irvington and Indianapolis he was known and esteemed.

Oil Discovery.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 20.—S. P. Sheerin, while on a trip to the city, reported the discovery of a new field for oil in Indiana. It has been struck in an abundant flow at Royal Center, Cass county, and the people are enthusiastic in talking of plans for working the new field.

Threw Money in the Stove.

UNION CITY, Ind., Jan. 20.—George Parent, farmer, counted out $300 on a

STATUS OF BUSINESS.

What Dan and Bradstreet Have to Say of Conditions.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: The event of the week is the offer of $50,000-measure counterbalanced by the loss in purchasing power of the people through reduction in wages paid. During the past week dispatches have told of reductions averaging 13 per cent in 15 iron and steel works and averaging 15 1-2 per cent in 11 textile works, five employing thousands of hands, each having reduced wages 20 per cent. Meanwhile 25 textile and 11 iron and steel concerns re-

Dr. G. C. Smythe thinks that the omnipotent and generous Cleveland has sent the southern zephyrs this winter to keep the masses warm until spring, when they won't need clothes. If the present administration doesn't do better than they have done, by spring the people will undoubtedly not have clothes to wear. It is providential that the winter has been so mild.
